Connecting your own device to school wireless

Windows 7

Step 1:

click the network icon in the notification area.

Step 2:

Check if "nswdet" in the list of available wireless networks, and then click "open Network and Sharing Center" button.

( Note: If you cannot see "nswdet" Network Connection, ask the Technology Support Officer to check your device details.)

Connecting your own device to school wireless
Windows 7

Step 3:
select " Manage wireles network"

Step 4:
Click " Add " to start the wireless setting process.

Connecting your own device to school wireless
Windows 7

Step 5:
select " Manually create a network profile"

Step 6:
Enter the settings as per the picture below, then press " Next " button.

Connecting your own device to school wireless
Windows 7

Step 7:

select " Change connection settings". There are a few more settings that need to be entered.

Step 8:

Click "Security" tab, make sure the details are as follows, then click "Settings" button.

Connecting your own device to school wireless
Windows 7

Step 9:

Click "Configure" to bring up the next box, uncheck the "Automatically use my Windows logon " box, then click "OK" button.  This will return you to the "Protected EAP Properties" window. Click " OK" button.

Step 10:

Click " Advanced Settings" button to go to the next window. Change the settings as below.

Connecting your own device to school wireless
Windows 7

Step 11:

Click the network icon in the notification area. select the "nswdet" connection from the list and click "Connect" button.

Step 12:
Open a web browser on your device and you should be able to access Internet now.